BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the Inamdar members have elected one B.S. Narayanamurthy who happens to be a Revenue Sheikdar as the member of the Dist. Board and request to be informed whether the election can be upheld.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

There is nothing in the L.B. Regulation or the rules framed thereunder to the effect that a Govt servant is disqualified from being elected as a member of the Local Board. The official in this case has been elected as a member of the Board not in his official capacity but in the capacity of an Inamdar –

2) In the case of municipality Govt servants are strictly prohibited from standing for election without sanction of Govt (vide G.O. no 8355-95/ML 57-18 R dated 8.1.1919) The draft of a G.O. prohibiting Govt officers whether elected, nominated or ex officio members of Local Boards from standing for election as President or Vice President thereof has already been submitted. It may however be pointed out in this connection that the Inamdars do not stand for election in the same sense as other members of the Board.

3) The point for consideration is whether by the Sheikdar being appointed as a member of the Dist Board, his legitimate duties will not suffer thereby. This difficulty will be all the greater if the Sheikdar is ~~[illegible]~~ transferred from

4) There seems to be however no provision in the rules to hold a fresh election and it does not also seem to be a matter in which Govt can exercise their discretion. It seems therefore that the election will have to be upheld. If the Deputy Commissioner thinks that the election interferes with ~~his~~ the candidate's duties as Sheikdar he may order the Sheikdar to resign his membership on the Board.

Govt. do not consider it expedient to allow the Sheikdar to be an inamdar member of the D.B. and to request you to be so good as to direct the Sheikdar to resign his membership at once.

I am also to request you to arrange for a fresh election and report the result for the early orders of Govt.
